Delegates from at least 16 countries and territories will attend a press seminar on "the press, Vietnam, and Asia" in Saigon March 17-20.

Seminar executive director Nguyen Ngoc Linh says the seminar, organized by the [South] Vietnam Council on Foreign Relations, would consist of three sessions—the press and Vietnam, Asian press development and perspective, and Asia and the Vietnam conflict.

Countries and territories attending are: Australia, Ceylon, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Iran, Japan, South Korea, Laos, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Singapore, Taiwan, Thailand, and host country South Vietnam.

Observers from the British Broadcasting Corporation and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) have also been invited.
